

Amendment #1

Phase 2 Status

Phase two completed in 2014 with the grand opening September 19, 2014. The grand opening involved dignitaries, TMRS members and the public. The ribbon cutting was carried out by Shirley Bond MLA, Mike Morris MLA, Bill Empey Regional District Frazer Fort George, Pat Harris Spinal Injury Group BC and Randy Ellenchuk President TMRS.

Official Ribbon Cutting

Official Installation of the first bench

TMRS President shaking hand with our major sponsor representative for Great-west Life

Entrance of the trail with first visitors at the grand opening

The work completed involved completion of the subgrade, hand railings, trail curbing, installation of the retaining wall along Dougherty Creek, installation of the bench pads and benches, trail bearers, kiosk, bear proof garbage container, handicap accessible outhouse, final grade and surfacing, signage, map, and gate entry to the trail.

Dougherty Creek wheel chair accessible outhouse

Dougherty Creek trail through a grove of Douglas fir

Signs at Entry of Trail

Retaining and benches along Dougherty Creek

Report on phase two

Phase 2 was completed with the assistance and funding from various groups and sponsors. The trail official named the Great West Life Mobility Nature Trail after our major sponsor "Great West Life Assurance".

All steps of phase 2 were completed except the installation of the picnic table. The picnic tables were not available for installation in 2014. Picnic table installation proposed for spring of 2015.

Dougherty Creek Trail Map

